

TUITION FEES POLICY

Policy Statement

Activate Learning's mission is to provide work-ready talent for business, and to transform lives through its Learning Philosophy. To achieve this, we require funds from a variety of different sources, which includes student fees. Funds from these fees form an essential part of our financial resources, which are required to enable us to provide the best education and facilities to our students.

Background

